As long as man has existed on earth, he has looked to the stars for inspiration and hope in appreciation of their beauty, in wonder at their size, and in curiosity about the forces that guide the universe. Now, man is preparing to explore his solar system. Its possibilities are just coming within his reach of understanding, while those of other parts of our galaxy are yet scarcely imaginable.

The sun, the core of our solar system, illuminates and vitalizes every other part. Similarly our teachers, the center of school life, shed light on every subject and give inspiration to every pupil throughout the school. To the teachers who stimulate us toward a wise selection of our goals, We, the Class of 1956, dedicate our KEY.

Seniors

As comets traveling from the depths of space pass through the solar system, they change course and shine with their own and the sun's reflected light. In like manner the seniors in their progress through school vary direction and enlarge their goals as they try new skills in the light of their own and reflected ideas.

The Last Will and Testament of the Class of 1956

We, the Seniors of the Class of 1956, being of hollow head, feeble body, and demented mind, do hereby will and bequeath to the following under the powers vested in us, all of our sweet, sweet memories and other unfit possessions. After prolonged consultation, consideration, and complete waste of time regarding the disposal of our fortunes, we, the Seniors, shall apportion our estate thus:

- To Mr. Sabin we leave our sincere appreciation for his guidance and understanding during our five-year adventure at Franklin.
- For Mr. Francis we have secured permission to share with Ding Dong School's own Miss Francis the melodic bell to wake up all the sleepy-eyed students each morning.
- To Miss Sullivan we leave a deluxe helicopter so she can avoid the four o'clock rush on her way to River Campus.
- To all senior homeroom teachers we leave a king-size box of Pabulum and sympathy. But if they have seen us through, they can take anything.
- To Miss Martens we leave a 24-inch color television set for her waiting room and a red and white whistle to clear court when her lunch hour arrives.
- To Mr. Stalker we bequeath a set of bells for his toes so that the kids will have enough time to stash away their lunches when he tinkles his approach.
- To Mrs. Daly and Mr. Cohen we leave our heartfelt thanks for unfailing leadership, and a huge trash can for the relief of old council notices, senior beanie receipts, and banquet tickets.
- To Mr. Smith we leave a Utopian Society where everyone goes to the same college or seeks the same type of employment.
- To Mr. Sherwood we leave a book of the best plays from the last 25 years for "you know what," along with one "Bah" and two "Humbugs."
- To Miss Carnahan and Mr. Hoffman, next year's senior class advisers, we leave a giant economy size bottle of Fizrin for all the headaches accompanying a senior class and a contract for starring roles in the Broadway production of As You Like It.
- To Mr. Taylor we bequeath a ray gun to halt all trespassers who stray into closed corridors.
- To Mr. Zornow we leave a pair of roller skates so he can really "whiz" through the corridors.
- To Mr. Miller we leave a magenta fire truck to put out all his neighbors' fires, and a beautiful companion for Piddler.
- To Mr. Lyders we leave a free ticket to hear Marlon Brando sing.—We know he'll enjoy himself.
- To Mrs. Connell we leave a lower blackboard to eliminate standing on her tiptoes while writing the English assignments.
- To Mr. Iman we leave a sociology class rich in perception.
- To Mr. DeFrancesco we bequeath an automatic seat arranger to satisfy everyone.
- To Mr. Chamberlain we leave a consignment of the newest Paris-fashioned gym suits.
- To Mr. Yaeger we bequeath a projection room on every floor of B.F.H.S.
- To Mrs. Morsheimer we bequeath a two-hundred-foot-square piece of paper that she can tear to infinity in her spare time.
- To Miss Batz we leave 30 brand new typewriters that don't make mistakes.
- To Mr. Carroll we bequeath a biology class that doesn't wait until Memorial Day recess to start its term papers.
- To Miss Donoghue we leave a choral group especially adept at reciting poetry.
- To Mr. Scammell we bequeath a crack-proof podium and a fireman's pole from the fourth floor to the band pit.
- To Mrs. Martin we delegate a World History Special that really is.
- To Miss Hess we promise future Latin students who will never wander into sweet Elysium.
- To Miss Rosenbloom we leave a hygiene class that doesn't ask embarrassing questions.
- For Mrs. Emery we have purchased sixteen tons of number nine thread.
- To the incoming Eighth Graders we leave a hot tip: Season's passes for the elevator to the fifth floor are now being sold by all penniless Seniors.
- To the present Eighth Graders we leave a literary masterpiece as a guide for your behavior toward Seniors:
"A Senior stood on the railroad track,
A train was coming fast,
The train got off the railroad track
And let the Senior pass."
—A Nony Mous
- To next year's Sophomores we leave a secret pamphlet giving ten new ways of getting their schedule changed.
- To next year's Juniors we bequeath Mr. Hamm, Mr. Beard, and Mr. Iman, who are all included in the American History package.
- To the present Juniors we recommend that in Chem. class they reserve seats (dash) near the door.

Duly witnessed and signed this twenty-first day of the first month, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and fifty-six, by those in the Senior Class of Benjamin Franklin High School who could write. The terms of this document shall be administered by Russotti, Goronkin, Minsk, and Sufrin, Attorneys at nonsense and foolery.

To a swell kid who observes the best of every thing.
How about sharing all those clothes with me.
